Skater's code of conduct

Code of Conduct and Security

- ❖ At all times, there must be at least two skaters on the ice. A skater should never be left alone on the ice. In case of accident, if there is no coach on the ice, please contact an arena staff member immediately.
- ❖ During CanSkate sessions, skaters from levels 1 to 4 are required to wear a CSA approved hockey helmet. The helmet is recommended for skaters in levels 5 and above.
- ❖ Stand by the ice barriers or in a safe place when holding social conversations so that you do not disturb other skaters.
- ❖ Stand by the ice barriers when consulting a solo, skill or dance pattern sheet. It is forbidden to skate with sheets and notes in hands.
- ❖ Keep ice barriers doors close. As much as possible, stay clear of the door closed to where the music equipment is kept (computer, iPod, CD player, etc.)
- ❖ Stay informed on the sessions ending time. Be ready to get off the ice close to that time and get off the ice as soon as you hear the arena alarm.
- ❖ If you are the last one to get out of the changing room, make sure to lock the door and take the key with you. Also, don't forget to lock the door to the toilets (between two changing rooms). There is no use locking the locker door if anyone can sneak in from next door!

Music

- ❖ Everyone is allowed to put on the music of his or her choice. The number of times that you play the same music or your selections should be reasonable and respectful to other skaters.
 - Coaches have priority while in lesson;
 - Before you play your selection, make sure no one is skating to the music already playing.

Skating Priorities

- ❖ With some exceptions, skating priorities are:
 1. While in lesson, the skater skating on his or her music holds the absolute priority;
 2. The skater skating on the music that is playing;
 3. A skater in lesson with his or her coach.
- ❖ During group lessons, skaters within the group always hold the skating priority.

Remember that common sense, respect and security are required at all times.
